“In response to a discussion and vote at the Sep 14 Board Meeting, I have just mailed an application for BVCC to become a member of the Association of PC Users Groups (APCUG).

APCUG membership doesn't cost that much ($50/yr), and one of the main motivations is they will send us via Email a number of articles every month from which you can select a subset for filler articles in the Newsletter (they have your Email address and that of some of the club officers).

The major difference from other article sources is that these articles come with full and explicit permission from the copyright holders for us to reprint and utilize them in our club publications as we see fit. “ Joel Ewing

Thank you Joel, we will look forward to these articles. JS

We all hope for a speedy recovery for our faithful webmaster, Ryan Smith.
